

COURSE REGISTRATION FAQ

COURSE REGISTRATION - FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: When can I register for courses?

A: Registration opens 6 weeks before the semester begins. Your specific registration date and time are based on your classification and total credit hours completed.

Q: How do I register for courses?

A: Use the online student portal to search for courses, check availability, and add courses to your schedule. You can also register by phone or in person at the Registrar's Office.

Q: What if the course I need is full?

A: Add yourself to the waitlist through the online system. You'll be automatically enrolled if a spot opens up. You can also contact the academic department to request permission to enroll.

Q: Can I change my schedule after registering?

A: Yes! You can add or drop courses during the first two weeks of the semester without academic penalty. After the add/drop period, you may withdraw from courses but will receive a "W" grade.

Q: What are prerequisites and how do I check them?

A: Prerequisites are courses you must complete before enrolling in more advanced classes. Check the course catalog or speak with your advisor to verify you've met all requirements.

Q: How many courses should I take per semester?

A: Full-time status requires 12+ credit hours. Most students take 15-16 credit hours (5-6 courses) per semester. Taking more than 18 credit hours requires advisor approval.

Q: What if I have a scheduling conflict?

A: Contact your academic advisor immediately. They can help you find alternative courses or sections that fit your schedule while meeting degree requirements.

Q: How do I get help with course selection?

A: Schedule an appointment with your academic advisor. They can help you plan your schedule, ensure you're meeting degree requirements, and discuss course options.
